

Aitken quickest in practice for Alps round at Spa

BY VALENTIN KHOROUNZHIY - 5 JUNE 2015

Photo: Florent Gooden / DPPI / Renault Sport Media

Formula Renault 2.0 Alps championship leader Jack Aitken topped the sole practice session of round four at Spa-Francorchamps.

Aitken held the lead for much of the session and eventually cemented his position at the top with a late improvement.

Russian duo Matevos Isaakyan and Vasily Romanov followed suit in second and third, both within two tenths of the Brit.

But Koiranen's imperious form from last Alps round at Spielberg does not appear to have evaporated, as Jake Hughes, who had claimed his first Eurocup win at Spa last weekend, and Stefan Riener made it three cars in the top five for the Finnish team.

Thiago Vivacqua was sixth ahead of Dorian Boccacchi, the FIA F3 regular practising with the Alps field to prepare for his main championship's Spa round. His fellow F3 racers Alessio Lorandi and Mahaveer Raghunathan were also present, finishing tenth and 16th, albeit unlike Boccacchi, both are expected to take part in the actual races.

GSK's Denis Bulatov and ARTA's James Allen slotted in between Boccacchi and Lorandi.